Stewardship Reflection

"Terrified Stewards"

"Then he asked them, 'Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?'" (Mark 4:40)

The thought of Stewardship terrifies some of us. We may feel that we cannot afford to give God a grateful share or to give the first fruits rather than the leftovers. It takes great faith and trust to believe that God will always provide us with all that we need, if we trust Him enough to give to Him first.

Second Collection Today

Catholic Star Herald Collection

This collection assists us in paying our monthly billing ($684) for all of our parishioners who receive this weekly Catholic Newspaper. Your generosity is greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Thoughts on Scripture

As curious as it sounds, our faith is never stronger than when we are wrestling with doubts. Faith is easy when everything is going our way. It doesn't take much to trust in God when we are healthy, wealthy, and wise. But holding on to God takes great strength when our faith is shaken.

The story of Jesus calming the storm is an allegory of the Christian life. Even though Jesus is with us, life's stormy seas can threaten us. When we call on him, however, he delivers us from the terror of the storm.

Samuel Johnson said, "Great works are performed, not by strength, but by perseverance. He that shall walk, with vigor, three hours a day, will pass, in seven years, a space equal to the circumference of the globe." Holding on a day or sometimes just an hour at a time will see us through the times when our faith is shaken.

Family Perspective: The apostles in today's gospel were amazed at the power of Jesus. Children are amazed at our lack of fear of dark rooms or monsters in closets or under beds. As the apostles depended on Jesus, children depend on us to restore quiet to their lives. Getting out of bed in the middle of the night to quiet a child's fears is the stuff of holiness.

Treasure Chest Flea

Market: St. Mary Magadalen Parish, Buck Street, Millville, invites you to our Annual Treasure Chest Flea Market to be held in our School building beginning on Thursday, July 2nd, through Sunday, July 5th. We guarantee there will be something for everyone! For directions or more information, please call (856) 825-0021. Flea Market Hours: Thursday, July 2nd - 4:00 PM to 8:00 PM; Friday, July 3rd - 11:00 AM to 6:00 PM; Saturday, July 4th - 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM (half price); and Sunday, July 5th - 9:00 AM to ?? ($1 a bag)

Father's Day Prayer

God, bless all the fathers in the world.
 Guide them to be good role models
 and loving to all their children.
 Help them to be a father like You are.
 Give them grace and patience to handle situations in a loving way.
 Amen.
